

Photo and Caption by Lapyu Hawng Hkawng 14-years-old, Boy

This is a photo of my friend. He is working. Now he is living in IDP camp. He is displaced here because of war. He is always talking how he is feeling so sad for being displaced. Now he is living here with us for the same reason we are here - for our education and school.

